

Mara Berg (MuckRuckNews) FOIA- Appropriate Office Apparel

Library	Did the Library receive the same FOIA request?	Does the Library have office apparel guidelines?	Comments
Hoover	No	No	All clothing worn must be clean and appropriate for a work environment.
Roosevelt	No	No	Contractors wear uniforms required by their contract.
Truman	No	No	Contractors wear uniforms required by their contract. The Truman Library does have a “no jeans” policy for Federal staff, per the Director.
Eisenhower	No	No	Custodians and security wear uniforms required by their contract.
Kennedy	No	No	Staff is asked to dress professionally. The Library allows staff to wear some of the apparel that is sold in the store that has the LP-JFK logo, but this is not required.
Johnson	Yes	Yes	As part of the volunteer notebook, volunteers are required to dress professionally. No jeans or athletic shoes are allowed. Volunteers must wear tie/scarf and name tag.
Nixon	No	No	The Nixon Library Docent Guild, which is an independent organization that supports the Library, does have a required uniform. Men : Grey slacks, white shirt, navy blazer, and black shoes. Women : Navy slacks/skirt, white blouse, red, white and blue scarf, red blazer, and black shoes.
Ford	No	Yes	Volunteers are provided with a navy blazer that they must wear when giving tours, but not when serving other functions.

Carter	No	No	The Carter Library does not allow flip flops or sandals.
Reagan	No	No	The Library staff has no dress code. The students however are required to wear a blue blazer, white shirt, tie and khakis throughout most of the year. In the summer, the students wear a white polo shirt and khakis.
Bush 41	No	No	Admission Clerks: Bush Library polo, provided by the Library), khakis or slacks Volunteers: Blue blazer, and khaki skirt or pants. This is asked by the staff but not required. The Library staff has no dress code.
Clinton	No	No	Foundation employees, including volunteers, are required to wear blazers and ties.
Bush 43	No	Yes	Admission Clerks: Blue polo's with LP-GWB embroidered logo, khaki pants, and comfortable shoes. Docents: Blue blazer, white dress shirt, grey slacks, black closed toe shoes. Volunteers: Plain white polo, tan slacks/skirt and black closed toe shoes.